

Meeting Vehicles

Name: ..... Date: .....

Your completed questions form part of the coursework required for assessment. Please contact Training Support for details of how to submit your work.

Please tick or underline each correct answer.

1. When explaining priority in meeting situations you will advise learners that as a general rule they should:

- a. give way if there is an obstruction on their side of the road;
- b. give way if there is an obstruction on the opposite of the road;
- c. always give way if on a driving test;
- d. only give way when there are obstructions on both sides of the road;

2. When stopping to give way to approaching traffic drivers should usually wait approximately:

- a. seven car lengths behind any obstruction;
- b. five car lengths behind any obstruction;
- c. two car lengths behind any obstruction;
- d. one car length behind any obstruction;

3. If other drivers give way in a meet situation you should advise learners:

- a. to keep both hands on the wheel and never say thank-you;
- b. that it is courteous and OK to signal their thanks with a hand gesture;
- c. that it's OK to give a quick headlight flash in thanks;
- d. that when possible, they should open the driver's window to give a verbal thank-you;

4. When marking Part-Three the examiner will take account of the instructor's action:

- a. in all meeting situations;
- b. only in meeting situations where the learner makes errors;
- c. only when meeting is specifically included in the lesson goals;
- d. only in meeting situations where the instructor makes errors;

5. If an instructor gives information that directly results in the learner making a serious error during Part-Three the examiner:

- a. will deduct 5 marks from the report sheet;
- b. will deduct 4 marks from the report sheet;
- c. will deduct 3 marks from the report sheet;
- d. will automatically record a fail;

6. When stopping to give way to approaching traffic drivers should position:

- a. well to the left;
- b. slightly to the left;
- c. well to the right;
- d. slightly to the right;

7. When discussing rectangular priority signs you should advise learners that;

- a. they always have right-of-way
- b. approaching vehicles will stop automatically;
- c. they might still have to give way to approaching traffic;
- d. it is an offence to give way to approaching traffic;

8. When teaching meeting we advise that the learner has:

- a. two main options when approaching;
- b. three main options when approaching;
- c. four main options when approaching;
- d. five main options when approaching;

9. We suggest a method that works particularly well for delivering a practical meeting lesson to a beginner. This involves:

- a. completing an on screen quiz;
- b. showing a video;
- c. a detail in-depth static explanation;
- d. a reversed-role demonstration;

10. A probable cause of passing too close to obstructions in meeting situations is:

- a. focussing on the obstruction;
- b. focussing on the road ahead;
- c. driving too slowly;
- d. driving too fast;