

Project no. 4: 5x multiple choice questions

Name: Date:

Print out these questions and circle the correct answers. There might be more than one correct answer for each question. Follow the web link in the online study guide to obtain the answers (which already know!)

1. Completing iCourse Theory alongside iCourse Driving can help you to:
 - a. integrate your studies into your driving
 - b. commute to work quicker
 - c. relax at traffic lights
 - d. make your study more interesting

2. Learning in small chunks can:
 - a. make you hungry
 - b. make large learning tasks easier
 - c. accelerate your learning
 - d. help you to understand the material more easily

3. People who are well motivated usually:
 - a. find learning easier
 - b. sleep 12 hours a day
 - c. know what they want to achieve
 - e. struggle with learning

4. Learning the answers to Part-One questions by rote (parrot fashion) will:
 - a. cause potential problems later on in training
 - b. always ensure that you can pass the exam
 - c. usually be the best way to learn
 - d. not help to develop your understanding of the subject

5. There are two basic types of motivation when learning something new. These include:
 - a. things that you want to move away from
 - b. fear of the unknown
 - c. things that you want to move towards
 - d. being repeatedly reminded when you get things wrong