

Crossroads - questions

Name: Date

What advice will you give to learners to help them to recognise the location of a crossroad?

How might you gain extra opportunities to teach crossroad skills?

If 'offside to offside' passing is the safest method of turning right at crossroads, why is 'nearside to nearside' the most common?

What simple method can you use to help your pupils remember to check all the roads before entering a crossroad junction?